Featured Supporter of the College of Architecture, Art, and Design

Paul Maczka

president

Bare eld Workplace Solutions

bare eldandcompany.com

(601) 354-4960 251 West South Street Jackson, MS 39205

"Bare eld Workplace Solutions, is a full-service o ce furniture and o ce supply dealership that has served Mississippi for sixty years. We are committed to customer satisfaction and take pride in our company and our role in the community."

Bare eld Workplace Solutions has been serving Mississippi as aof the Bare eld Design Studio is full-service o ce furniture and o ce supply dealership since 1946. e company's president, Paul Maczka, purchased the

For the past two years, company eight years ago when heare eld's regional Steelcase moved to Jackson from Charlotte, representative, Brian Clark, N.C., where he had been running has been providing a design another Steelcase dealership.

e authorized Steelcase furniture dealer, which is also a supplier in the education and healthcare arenas, has six Mississippi locations: Jackson, Natchez, New Albany, Vicksburg, design competition, which Greenville and Meridian.

are Mississippi State graduates, including Interior Design Manager Emily Kimbrell.

"Obviously Mississippi State means a lot to my organization ancClark has also helped coordinate Girls Club in the Jackson area. president said. "We work with a various architecture rms in the state, and we have enjoyed a greathe program when they toured relationship with those folks and thought it was a worthy cause."

Maczka said the establishment just an extension of the company's students in the program and current involvement with the Interior Design Program.

competition for students using Steelcase and its partner companies as the source for furnishing needs. MSU graduates Mississippi State, the company Kimbrell and Ginger Hu man have served as judges for the includes a scholarship prize for the anched a new website and has Several people in the companystudent winners. e project has been an incredible opportunity for students to be able to work with industry partners and learn about real-world products.

the people that I employ here," the tours of Steelcase showrooms in Atlanta and Dekalb and a trip to lot of Mississippi State grads at thethe Polydivison design space in Atlanta. He even met a group fromsaid Maczka. "We try to be active Steelcase facilities on their recentback to our community whenever junior eld trip to Chicago.

Maczka said he hopes the money will continue to help further the design competition to help students understand the company's products and receive scholarship money. He also hopes students will be able to tour some of the Bare eld locations to learn more about the company.

In addition to helping support the Interior Design Program at also supports a number of other organizations through its Bare Cares Program. Bare eld just even dedicated an area for people to make donations to the American Red Cross and the Boys & Girls Clubs of America. ey are also currently helping redo a Boys &

"It's just one of our core values as an organization to be involved and contribute to our community," in our community and try to give we can."